An open scroll with Hebrew text is the central focus, illuminated by a warm, golden light. The scroll is unrolled, showing two pages of text. The background is dark and textured, possibly representing a cave or a hidden place. The overall atmosphere is mysterious and ancient.

Chapter 20

- As we move into chapter 20 we meet what is referred to as the 'millennium'.
- The word 'millennium' comes from the Latin words 'mille' meaning a 'thousand' and 'annum' meaning 'years'.
- This occurs following the 2nd Coming
- It will be a period of 1000 years where Jesus will rule the world from the throne of David in Jerusalem

The Millennial Reign of Christ

<sup>37</sup> Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

<sup>38</sup> And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

Daniel 2:37-44

The Millennial Reign of Christ

<sup>39</sup> And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

<sup>40</sup> And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

Daniel 2:37-44

The Millennial Reign of Christ

<sup>41</sup> And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

<sup>42</sup> And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.

Daniel 2:37-44

The Millennial Reign of Christ

<sup>43</sup> And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

<sup>44</sup> And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

Daniel 2:37-44

- All of these were literal physical kingdoms
- So we can conclude that Jesus kingdom will also be a literal kingdom on earth

The Disciples Prayer

<sup>9</sup> After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

<sup>10</sup> Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Matthew 6:9-13

- Misunderstood by most churches?
- The kingdom here referenced is the same as in Acts 1:6

The Disciples Reward

<sup>28</sup> And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Matthew 19:28

- If this was merely symbolic it would be a meaningless promise.
- There is no such thing as a symbolic reward!

The Disciples Question

- 6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?
- 7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

Acts 1:6-7

The Disciples Hope

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

Luke 1:26-33

Literally Fulfilled

- This was the belief of the early church
- Over 1800 verses in the Old Testament speak of the kingdom on earth as being a literal kingdom

Preparation for the Kingdom

- This kingdom was not possible from A.D.70 until 1948.
- In 1967 Jerusalem was reclaimed.
- As prophesied in Ezekiel, Israel are being gathered, but the Spirit is not yet in them.
- The house of Israel & Judah has been restored in to one nation awaiting their king – Ezekiel 37:22-23

Other Interpretations

- Amillennial
  - Literally meaning 'No Millennium'
- Post Millennial
  - Typically interpreted that the 2nd Coming will occur after the Millennium

Other Interpretations

- Some of the problems with a symbolic interpretation of the book of Revelation and chapter 20 in particular are as follows:
  - Six times in this chapter we are told of a period of 1000 years (v2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7). There is no reason to believe that this is to be taken other than at face value.

Other Interpretations

- Some of the problems with a symbolic interpretation of the book of Revelation and chapter 20 in particular are as follows:
  - A symbolic interpretation allows no room for the restoration of Israel and the everlasting covenant that God made with Abraham and confirmed with David. Gen 17:7 / 2 Sam 7:12-13, 16, 24, 26, 29 / Psalm 89 / Jer 30:8-11 / Jer 33:14-26 etc.

Other Interpretations

- Some of the problems with a symbolic interpretation of the book of Revelation and chapter 20 in particular are as follows:
  - If we are in the kingdom age now, only the great white throne awaits us; which is a Judgment based on works (actually it is a sentencing – the judgment having already having been passed) – and that's bad news for all of us!

Other Interpretations

- Some of the problems with a symbolic interpretation of the book of Revelation and chapter 20 in particular are as follows:
  - Contrary to what Paul believed, the Church cannot be the Bride of Christ because the marriage of the Lamb occurs before the 'millennium' (Rev 19:7). If we are now living in the 'millennium', Christ must already have His bride.

Other Interpretations

- Some of the problems with a symbolic interpretation of the book of Revelation and chapter 20 in particular are as follows:
  - It negates the clear teaching of Jesus regarding the time before He returns, the deceptions that He said would abound, and His coming in power and glory that He said will be like lightning across the sky – not something you could easily miss!

Other Interpretations

- Some of the problems with a symbolic interpretation of the book of Revelation and chapter 20 in particular are as follows:
  - It negates the countless prophecies in the Old Testament about the Day of the Lord, and the time of trouble for Israel (Jer 30:7 / Isaiah 13:9-11), which must all occur before the millennium begins – and nothing in history compares with the Bible's description of this time.

Other Interpretations

- Some of the problems with a symbolic interpretation of the book of Revelation and chapter 20 in particular are as follows:
  - It completely misses the whole purpose for the Second Coming and millennium as revealed in the Bible.

The background features a sunset with warm orange and red tones. On the left, a brass hourglass is visible, with sand falling from the top bulb to the bottom bulb. ### Putting on Ancient Airs

Dinosaurs, it seems, may have breathed easier than we do. Indeed, at a meeting of the Geological Society of America in Phoenix last week, two scientists stunned colleagues by reporting that 80 million years ago, the earth's atmosphere contained about 50% more oxygen than it does now. Geochemists Gary Lands of the U.S. Geological Survey and Robert Berner of Yale reached their startling conclusion after analyzing tiny air bubbles trapped in bits of amber, the aged and solidified resin of coniferous trees. They placed the amber inside a vacuum chamber, then cracked it to let the ancient air escape. They found that it was 32% oxygen, compared with 21% in the modern atmosphere.

If the findings are accurate, ideas about atmospheric evolution might have to be revised. The two admit the results “are still very preliminary,” but they insist the method is sound.

Berner quickly dismisses speculation that a change in the oxygen supply had anything to do with the extinction of dinosaurs. “It was a very slow change, over millions of years,” he observes. “And most organisms easily adapt.” Next comes testing bubbles in 300 million-year-old amber.

New theory: Lack of oxygen, not asteroid, killed dinosaurs

BOSTON (AP) — Dinosaurs won't live in a gas planet, as the theory holds, but by a little in the atmosphere that might have been enough oxygen to support their inefficient respiratory systems, a new theory suggests.

A new analysis of air trapped in 820 million year old amber found in east central Minnesota casts doubt on the notion that the dinosaurs starved to death after a giant asteroid hit the planet 65 million years ago, smothering up the air that blocked the sun and killed plants.

Dinosaurs were already on their way out by the time the asteroid happened, he says. Cary Lands, a U.S. Geological Service paleontologist and one of the researchers presenting their theory at the Geological Society of America's annual meeting today.

"The dinosaurs did not hold over with their feet up in the air, but they found it increasingly difficult to compete in their environment."

The theory also carries implications for humans because it presumes the worldwide atmosphere, changes ON NOV 20 to 20 years later than previously thought, the researchers said.

Lands and his colleagues found air found trapped in the amber is one-tenth Minnesota. They found that the proportion of oxygen in the atmosphere fell from a high of 35 percent to a low of 23 percent within the relatively short time of between 500,000 and 500,000 years.

"It would be like taking a dinosaur to a mall from sea level up to 4,000 to 7,000 feet," Lands said.

The oxygen rich air would have volcanic activity that pumped out carbon dioxide, which was converted into oxygen by plants.

Dinosaurs evolved during this time, when oxygen was plentiful and had a weak respiratory system, according to the theory known as the Peto Hypothesis. Peto is a Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn.

An 80-foot-long sauropod, also known as a brontosaurus, had a set of nostrils about the same size as a horse's, for example, said Richard A. Hanger, a Purdue University physiologist.

"There were some serious problems with trying to get an air-breathing animal," Hanger said. "Dinosaurs could not have existed without having more oxygen in the air at that time."

The scientists said the smaller cold-blooded animals around at the time such as crocodiles, lizards and turtles were able to survive because of their relatively modest oxygen needs. So did some of the smaller mammals with more efficient respiratory systems, the scientists said.

A few species of the time have to be mentioned, however, including the mammoth.

"They fully evolved to live in a

Center to treat dive victims

Hyperbaric chamber to be ready in March

By Linda Dentler
News Service Staff Writer

At first it just felt as if his arm was aching — the same sensation you get when you sleep on your arm and then try to abruptly swing a shuffling dance disk.

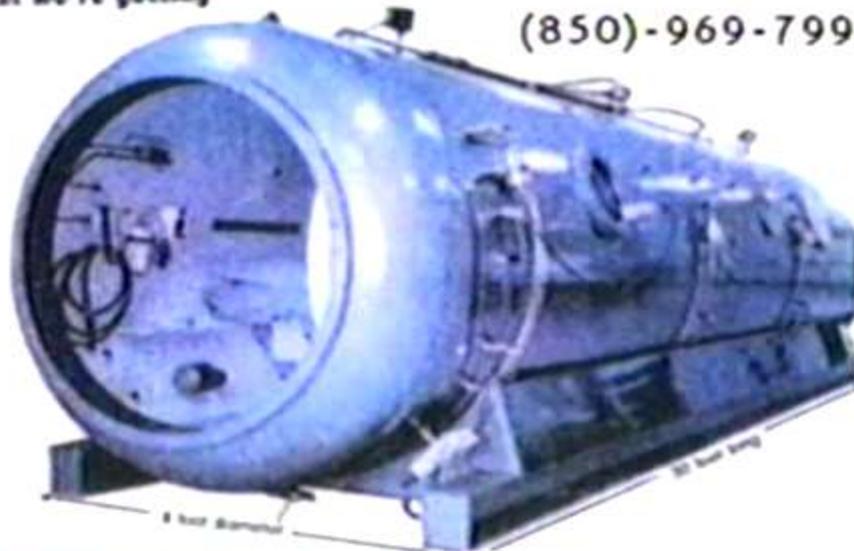

The numbness crept through other parts of Steve Lester Carr's body — eventually paralyzing his arms and legs — after his annual dive on Father's Day, 1985. About 15 minutes after surfacing, he and his diving buddy called the Coast Guard to get the hyperbaric chamber at Pensacola Naval Air Station ready to treat his aching decompression sickness.

But Carr said it took about two hours and three tries by emergency workers to find a chamber that was available and could treat him. N.A.S. was standing by but communication errors caused the emergency crew to fly him first toward Mobile, then turn around and head for the chamber in Pensacola City.

Carr, a 37-year-old Pensacola resident, has good reason to be intimidated in the opening of a large hyperbaric center in Pen-

*If they do these things in a green tree,
