The Lampstand & Olive Trees*

The background features a sunset with warm orange and red tones. On the left, a brass hourglass is visible, with sand falling from the top bulb to the bottom. On the right, a scroll of text is unrolled, showing Hebrew or Aramaic script. The main title is centered over the scene.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ

Chapter 11

The Two Witnesses

3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

Revelation 11:3

- These two witnesses are supernaturally empowered for 3 ½ years.

4 These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

Revelation 11:4

- Olive trees are mentioned 7x in scripture
- Each time it is linked with faithfulness
- In Ch 1 candlesticks were seen as representative of the Church being a witness.
- Now the Church has gone, these two witnesses pick up the baton.

Identity of the Harlot

- The false religious system that has led people away from the worship of the true God, and symbolised as this woman, has been skilfully established by Satan since the time of the Tower of Babel
- With one purpose: to unite all mankind, thus reversing the effects of the Tower of Babel where God confused the languages of the people (Gen 11:7).

Identity of the Harlot

- Once mankind has been reunited again (through this false religious system) Satan will have no further uses for it and will then cause all mankind to worship him in the person of Antichrist. (See again Rev 13:3-4 / also Isaiah 14:14)

Identity of the City

- Babylon, not Rome
- Jeremiah 50, 51
- Isaiah 13, 14
- All deal with the destruction of literal Babylon
 - This has not taken place to date!
 - Babylon has been inhabited though the ages
 - Cyrus makes it his capitol, followed by Alexander the Great
